

Vadine Sister

VADI JEWELS - Marseilles - M Major 2016

Vadine Sister designs jewelry since she is 16. After studying Art history and attending Conservatoire de Danse in Nantes, she trained with several fashion and accessory designers including Marseillan collective MAKE who commissioned her first jewelry line. In 2010, Vadine launched Vadi Jewels, her own brand showcasing a unusual mix of raw/precious stones and materials which captures the attention of buyers during tradeshows. Delicate but rock at the same time, solar and moon-like, the jewelry pieces are all hand-crafted at atelier-boutique Oscar in Marseilles.
