Les Midinettes - Marseilles - M Major 2016

Marie-Agnès Albertini graduated with a diploma in fashion design and garment prototyping from the IICC fashion school in 2006. She then continued her training with Pako Litto in the South of France, then in Paris at the Stella Cadente fashion studio. She created the label “Les Midinettes” in 2011, with clothing and dress codes inspired by a character she has been drawing since she was a child: a multi-coloured, mischievous, impish fairy tale universe for retro inspired collections.
