

A fashion spread on the 2016 M Major laureates in the Grazia women's fashion magazine

11/04/2016

The Maison Méditerranéenne des Métiers de la Mode (MMMM) discovers, reveals and supports young entrepreneurs in the fashion industry. Among them are the 10 laureates of the 2016 M Major competition, who are covered in this fashion spread. The 2016 Spring/Summer collections of these 10 young ready-to-wear and accessories designers are presented over a 12 page fashion spread in the Grazia magazine.

This is excellent media coverage for these designers, who all come from the PACA region of France and are supported the MMMM.
