Even when she is in between two flights on business, one to Marrakesh and the other to Dubai, Muriel Piaser still takes the time to be a guest mentor and expert for the laureates of the 2016 M Major competition.

In fact, the international fashion consultant gave a Master Class on 30 June at the Maison Méditerranéenne des Métiers de la Mode (MMMM), followed by individual tutorial meetings with each laureate for a more personalised coaching session.

As part of the M Major programme provided by the Maison Méditerranéenne des Métiers de la Mode (MMMM), Muriel Piaser coaches the designers on developing international business.

Arriving directly from Monte Carlo Fashion Week, her Master Class was open to all the labels supported by the MMMM.

Her glamour and expertise have made her an excellent mentor and expert for the Maison Méditerranéenne des Métiers de la Mode (MMMM), for more than 5 years now.
