Olgajeanne - Marseille - M Major 2015

A graduate of Studio Berçot in Paris, Sophie Baillet, who created the brand Olgajeanne in 2011, creates jewellery based on her personal techniques applied to fabric.

At first glance, these could be described as modern luxury geometric pieces whose exclusive design enhances the basics of a unique and refined wardrobe.

Each innovatively designed modern piece is identified by a series number and handcrafted in the Marseille studio with high-quality materials and French and Japanese fabrics. The time lavished on design and production is the hallmark of the Olgajeanne jewellery brand.
