Jose Castro Barcelona - Spain - MFP 2010

José Castro comes from Galicia. He graduated from the Royal College of Arts in London. He is a member of the “Fédération française du prêt-à-porter, de la couture et des créateurs de mode”. He collaborated with Alexander Mc Queen for Givenchy, was the Art Director for Miro Jeans and one of the designers for the brand Desigual. He presented his brand José Castro Barcelona on several occasions at the Carrousel du Louvre in Paris and at the “Palais Omnisport de Bercy”, thereby getting international recognition for his work. He was awarded several prizes: one for innovation and creativity from the Royal College of Art Society in 2000 and one for the best Spring-Summer collection from L'Oréal in 2010. José Castro likes to mix different genres, switching from “darkness to light, from a world of phantoms to reality”.
