

Andreja Bisticic & Maja Merlic

DIORALOP - CROATIA - MFP 2017

Graduated from Central St.Martins College of Art and Design and Faculty of Architecture in Zagreb, the Croatian duo decided to launch their label. Andreja's taste for cut and deconstruction perfectly balanced with Maja's vision of print and textile manipulation. DIORALOP collections are inspired by Polaroid pictures. Inspiration is drawn from subcultures, street fashion and issues with an emotional impact. Every season, the designers like to tell stories in different ways, using ambiguous fabrics, proportion and silhouette. Their designs are appreciated by uncompromising, aware and individual persons.

"OPENMYMED PRIZE would be a great step into achieving even more visibility, opportunities, production co-operations, development of our business as well as an amazing promotion for all of the laureates designers"

Awards winner: Croatia ELLE Style Awards - Best Young Designers 2012
