

Muriel Villain Crowdfunding - Expert 2017

Muriel Villain graduated from the Ecole Polytechnique Féminine, a general engineering higher education establishment, and has since worked in a managerial role in Banking for 20 years.

Interested in entrepreneurial creativity and collective intelligence management, in 2015 she created Provence Booster: a booster for collective success using crowdfunding, training and providing support for innovative projects. Provence Booster, the Crowdfunding Platform “Made in Provence”, has helped nearly 200 project promoters make a success of their project.
