

Feedback & Jobs

45% of the students had taken a Fashion or Textiles undergraduate course before taking their Masters Degree. As soon as they passed their Masters Degree, 50% of the students were offered a CDD - fixed term employment contract, or a CDI - indefinite period employment contract, as soon as their work placement was finished.

For the 18 students who passed their Masters Degree in 2014, 40% had already graduated at Degree level, or equivalent, in Fashion métiers. 4 received offers of a CDI - indefinite period employment contract, before their end of course work placement was finished. Once they had graduated from the Masters Degree course, 70% obtained a CDD - fixed term employment contract, or a CDI - indefinite period employment contract: one student created their own company NoirDressing, an online site for sales of fashion clothes and accessories: <http://noirdressing.com/>

In 2015 19 students passed their Masters Degree, 69% of whom are already working under a CDD - fixed term employment contract, or a CDI - indefinite period employment contract.

Types of employment after passing a Masters Degree

Student geographic areas